David and Goliath, caves and deserts, beautiful women and palace intrigues, last minute escapes and chases of two kings. It’s exciting!David’s story is exciting. David is both a committed believer and a prolific singer-songwriter. He learned to trust Yahweh in the depths of depression, in the extremes of danger, and in the heights of joy.The story of David is human. We watch this imperfect man fall very low, find repentance, grace and forgiveness, and in the end he is healed and redeemed.The story of David is manly. Do real men make God? Oh, yes! This great warrior and leader of men integrates faith into his life and throughout his career. David’s story is morally challenging. He lives in a world far from ours, with palaces and harem, but also giants and fierce hand-to-hand combat. But at the root of the differences are the moral guidelines that hold us together.David’s story goes on. He is the ancestor and type of the Messiah, the Son of David and the Son of God - Jesus of Nazareth. To understand Jesus, you have to start with David. The study contains: 15 maps 3 genealogical cards Historical and geopolitical notes Discussion question to stimulate thought and spiritual growth We cover 43 chapters in 12 lessons Â 1 Samuel from 14 to 31, all 2 Samuel, plus 1 Kings 1-2. As a reserter, we will move faster on most of the narrative material, but we slow down when it comes to key events and important spiritual lessons. I hope you will register below and join us when this study starts on September 9, 2012. Yours at the Service of Christ, Dr. Ralph F. Wilson General Lesson Preface Introduction to the Life of David Samuel Consecrates David as King (1 Samuel 15-16) David and Goliath: Bold Faith (1 Samuel 17) Jonathan’s Friendship, Saul’s Jealousy (1 Samuel 18-20) David flees from Saul (1 Samuel 21-23) David Spares the Anointed One of the Lord (1 Samuel 24-28) David strengthens himself in the Lord (1 Samuel 29-2 Samuel 1) David becomes king and conquers Jerusalem (2 Samuel 2-5) David brings the Ark to Jerusalem (2 Samuel 6) The Covenant with David (2 Samuel 7) The Ascension, The Fall and Punishment of David (2 Samuel 8-12) Rape, Murder and Cond David’s Exile from Jerusalem (15:13-20:26) David’s Inheritance (2 Samuel 21-1 Kings 2) Here’s how we will study together. This is our 37th online Bible study since 1996. If you’ve already done one, you know how God can use them in your life. If not, then you have a surprise in store for you. This is an interdenominational study designed to help you grow as a disciple of Christ. --Dott. Ralph F. Wilson. About the boss. Every Saturday I e-mail you the class of the week. Then the biblical step and you’ll use my notes to help you understand it better. If you’dunsubscribe to the daily version of the questions, on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday you will receive a question from that week’s lesson to think about and answer. This is designed as a “full immersion” approach to Bible study, as I believe God wants to use these lessons to bring about real and permanent change in your life. (You can opt for daily questions if you wish, however, and only receive weekly lessons.) You will think about these passages constantly during these weeks -- long enough to allow God to work His Word in your life and lifestyle. You can answer questions and exercises using the Joyful Heart Bible Study Forum -- and read others’ answers to strengthen your understanding. For each lesson, you will receive a link to a 20-30 minute audio lesson summarizing the passage you studied that week. Some who learn better by listening than by reading really appreciate it. Available as pocket book, Kindle and PDF. Then I’ll send you next week’s class on Saturday. To register, start by clicking on your e-mail frequency: You will receive your first lesson on the Friday after registration. Participation in the study is free of charge, although donations are encouraged so that you can create more studios and reach more people. We respect your privacy and do not sell, rent or lend our lists. Please don’t subscribe to your friends; let them decide for themselves. Please do not enroll in more than one of my Bible studies at a time. There are no penalties, but each of them is pretty intense. If you try to do too many studies at the same time without proper reflection, you will miss the fact that God speaks to you. I have been a pastor for the past 30 years, and since 1996 I have been conducting Bible studies on the Internet. Today I find great joy in teaching people from all over the world, from all denominations and religious traditions, even those without any religious background. If you want, you can learn more about me and what I believe in. -- Dott. Ralph F. Wilson, Director Why study this letter? Let me give you some reasons: You will refresh yourselves with hope and joy. You will see Jesus more clearly â as the Lamb, Shepherd, Superintendent, Sacrifice, and Chief Shepherd. If you are struggling with temptation, you will find several encouragement for a holy life that you If you’re suffering from something you haven’t done -- or maybe you’ve done -- you’ll find perspective and security. Peter gives us: A clear vision of the Church. Wisdom for marriage Encouragement to witness -- with sweetness Important words on spiritual gifts and guidelinesChurch leaders. All this in the 105 verses that make up this short letter of the New Testament. As short as it is, however, we will not rush through it, but we will taste it, meditate on it, and try to internalize its truths. All the lessons are compiled in e-book or pocket-sized form. We will spend eleven weeks asking God to speak to us with these apostolic words of a commercial fisherman from Galilee, now in Rome, who He’s about to be executed. He’s less brazen now than he used to be. Less impulsive. Time and discipleship have forged humility in him without destroying his audacity. Peter is an apostle from whom we can learn. He walked with Jesus during His ministry and then spent the next thirty years preaching this Jesus and building His church throughout the known world. A worthy teacher! That’s how we study together. Every Saturday I e-mail you the class of the week. Then you will read the Bible passage and use my notes to help you understand it better. On Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and perhaps Thursday, you will receive a question from that week’s class to think about and answer. This is designed as a “full immersion” approach to Bible study as I believe God wants to use it to bring about real and permanent change in your life. (You can opt for daily questions if you wish, however, and only receive weekly lessons.) You will think of 1 Peter constantly for eleven weeks â long enough to allow God to work His Word in your life and lifestyle. You can answer questions using the Joyful Heart Bible Study Forum -- and read others’ answers to strengthen your understanding. Then I’ll send you next week’s class. Available as an e-book in PDF or Kindle format. Here’s the profile we’ll follow in the next six months Introduction to 2 Peter and Jude Great and Precious Promises (2 Peter 1:1-4) “Knowledge” in 2 Peter Add to Your Faith Goodness (2 Peter 1:1-4) (2 1:5-11) The Living Word of Scripture (2 Peter 1:12-21) Beware of False Teachers (2 Peter 2:1-22; Jude 3-19) Parallels between 2 Peter and Jude not wanting any danger (2 Peter 3:1-18) to keep you from falling (Judge 1-2, 20-25) Manifestations for Group Participants (may be duplicate for group members at no cost) I hope I’ve convinced you to go with me on a JesusWalk for the next six weeks. Join me sitting at the feet of St. Peter and St. Jude as we learn lessons for the disciples. Wilson Free E-mail Bible Study 28 Advent Scriptures Book Front Cover | Back Cover The brash fisherman called “Rock,” now matured, will help you grow in Christ 1 Peter is a short letter – only 105 verses – but packed with power. The apostle, once a commercial fisherman in Galilee, is now in Rome and soon to be executed. Now he’s less braggart, less impulsive. Time and discipleship have forged humility within him without destroying his audacity. And in this maturity, Peter helps us see Jesus more clearly – as the Lamb, the Survival, the Sacrifice, and the Chief Shepherd. As you study, you will be refreshed with hope and joy. Struggling with temptation? Peter encourages you to live holy. Are you suffering for something you didn’t do... or maybe you did? You will find perspective and assurance. Peter gives us a clear vision of the Church, wisdom for marriage, instruction in spiritual gifts, encouragement to witness – with sweetness – and guidelines for church leaders. 1 Peter is explored in 11 lessons, each with questions for discussion. The book can be used for personal enrichment, by small groups and classes, and for preparation by teachers and preachers. Preface3 Introduction to 1 Peter9 1. The joy in our (1:1-12) 14 2. Page 5 JesusWalkA® Publications 2 Peter and Jude: Discipleship Lessons by Dr. Ralph F. Wilson Large front cover image According to Peter and Jude, two short letters near the end of the New Testament are usually neglected, and are seldom the center of sermons. They may seem obscure, but here are some gems of Christian teaching: How to grow in Christ, how to avoid falling. The Nature of Scriptural Inspiration. For the coming of Christ has been delayed. The dangers of false teachers and bad doctrine. God’s awesome protection around us. Yes, you will find some elements that are difficult to understand and relate to, but we will focus and meditate on those many verses that provide rich nourishment for our souls. This volume explores 2 Peter and Jude in 6 lessons. Thought-provoking discussion questions make it a useful tool for personal enrichment, small groups and classes. The footnotes assist teachers and preachers with the background research for the preparation of the sermon. Here are the 6 lessons: Great and Precious Promises (2 Peter 1:1-4) Add to your Goodness of Faith (2 Peter 1:5-11) The Living Word of Scripture (2 Peter 1:12-21) Beware of False Teachers (2 Peter 2:1-22; Jude 3-19) Not willing that anything should perish (2 Peter 3:1-18) Able to keep you from falling (Jude 1-2, 20-25) Click below for a detailed table of contents.
